1. After the IAC meeting, spoke to Park Armstrong about ~~Mr. Park Armstrong~~ about [REDACTED] trip and promised to send a copy of the latest revised itinerary to Bill Trueheart. Park said that airgrams had been sent to the State Department posts prior to [REDACTED] departure and he understood that our field stations would keep the State posts advised of changes in the itinerary. Later called Trueheart and promised to keep him informed of itinerary changes as we receive cable advice. 25X1A9a

2. Talked to [REDACTED] on his 17 November memorandum laying-on a special estimate "Probable Developments in Indonesia." He explained that although no approval from the DCI is required, he usually likes to be informed of new estimates. I told him that we would submit this for the Director's log tomorrow.

3. At the IAC meeting, General Smith referred to the National Intelligence Digest and said that he was extremely pleased with the appearance of the report, the art and map work, and the generally high standards maintained. He said that he had received the same reaction from the President and wanted particularly that those who were responsible for its production be commended. ✓
